Proper Bibliographic Reference Format:

- Bibliographic references are double-spaced and indented half an inch after the first line.
- It is no longer necessary to include the date of retrieval unless the source material may change over time (e.g., Wikis).
- If no DOI is available, give the URL of the journal’s homepage.

In-Text Citations:

- Citations are placed in the context of discussion using the authors’ last names and date of publication.

For the first citation in text (for works of three to five authors).

(Labbo, Place, & Soares, 2010)

Subsequent citations in text (for works of three to five authors).

(Labbo et al., 2010)

- Alternatively, you can integrate the citation into the sentence by means of narrative.

For the first citation in text (for works of three to five authors).

Labbo, Place, and Soares (2010) present practical ideas to integrate technology into the classroom.

Subsequent citations in text (for works of three to five authors).

Labbo et al. (2010) present practical ideas to integrate technology into the classroom.

When a work has six or more authors, cite only the surname of the first author followed by et al. (not italicized and with a period after al) and the year for the first and subsequent citations.
